

Photography Open Studio

There is no Fall Open Studio at this point. If you are interested in volunteering as a studio monitor for the fall session (or any future sessions), please contact the office at (203) 966 – 9700 x 12.

Photography Open Studio provides current students with an opportunity to practice and advance their skills outside of class time. During open studio hours, students may work on furthering their printmaking skills while working with presses and various materials. While there will be a studio manager present all times, instruction will not be provided.

Silvermine Art Center is able to provide Open Studio session with the assistance of volunteer studio monitors. At this time, a dedicated open studio monitor is not available and open studio session for the fall session may not be scheduled

Monitors volunteer their time and enjoy special pricing for all open studio offerings. With a recommendation for your instructor, Silvermine Art Center welcomes students to further their artistic experience while contributing to the community and we are always looking for more studio monitors.

Open Studio Pricing & Payments

Students pay for individual open studio sessions for the amount of $30.00 cash only per studio attendance. Payments for session-to-session open studios will be accepted in cash at the time of attendance, to be collected by the open studio monitor. Students are not permitted to attend an open studio session without confirmation of payment. Unattended Open Studio sessions cannot be rolled over into the next class period and no make ups are available for missed sessions.
