

Silvermine's Summer Art camps are extremely popular and last minute cancellations pose significant challenges in managing resources effectively as well as accommodating waitlisted students. Our updated policies allow us to better plan staffing, supplies, and programming requirements, ultimately enhancing the overall camp experience for all participants.

Cancellation by Silvermine

The School reserves the right to change its calendar, withdraw, modify or cancel camps and use substitute instructors, as needed. If Silvermine cancels a camp, students may opt to transfer to another camp, receive a credit to their Silvermine account or receive reimbursement to the original form of payment.

General Registration Policies

- Registration Fee: Each term, a $35 non-refundable registration fee is charged.
- Enrollment: A minimum enrollment is required for a camp to run. In addition, there are maximum limits based on studio size, equipment and instructor's requirements.
- Withdrawals: Withdrawals and transfers are honored during school office hours, by phone only, Monday – Friday, 9:00 AM – 5:00 PM. Withdrawals made by email are not accepted and are not guaranteed prompt service.
- Waitlists: We highly recommend students place themselves on waitlists for any fully enrolled camps. The School will email waitlisted students when/if an opening becomes available.
